

For small broadcasters, this would create an expensive and labor intensive requirement. While cost for recording equipment and storage is lowering, for this amount of storage the cost is beyond reach. We are already seeing regulatory fees increase each year while profit margins decrease.